SCHOOL GIRLS GIVE LUNCHEON

Eight grade domestic science class girls of the Washington school, encouraged by their success last Monday when they served luncheon to a party of business men assembled in the school to discuss the financing of the Associated Charities, entertained the teachers of the building, together with the special teachers and Principal H. H. Clark of the high school, at a banquet Wednesday evening.

The meal was served in the kindergarten room, which had been beautifully decorated with Christmas decorations, including the Christmas drawings by the little kindergartners themselves. The table was most ingeniously spread, with fourteen covers, the center-piece being a Santa Claus chimney from which issued red and green ribbons leading to the place of each guest, and to which the place cards were attached. On being seated the ribbons were pulled out and the guests found attached to the concealed ends of the ribbons, a gift which was supposed to illustrate the pet hobby of the recipient.

For example, one guest received a rolling pin, another a hammer, etc., with an appropriate verse in which was set forth the facts that could be accomplished with these implements, or other suggestion of a humorous nature in rhyme. The teacher of manual training it is needless to say received the hammer, and so on down the line. The menu was a triumph for domestic science "as she is taught" in the Indiana Harbor schools by Miss Lydia Evans, special teacher in this department. It included roast turkey with dressing, brown gravy, potatoes, peas and tomatoes, fruit salad, steamed fruit pudding, grapes, coffee and crackers.

The girls who did the serving as well as the preparing of the meal, together with their teacher, received many congratulations on the result of their efforts.

MOTHER OF TWO-DAY OLD BABY IS PUT OUT INTO STREET

Elifrosina Plankova, 1237 Jefferson street, Gary, young woman who was deserted by her husband last week, two days ago gave birth to a baby. She was in destitute circumstances at the time.

Yesterday a butcher, whose name the police haven't learned, drove up to her home and after seeing all of the furniture and carting it away he put the mother into the street. Her child had died shortly after its birth and the woman was very ill. She staggered into the police station half-starved. Captain Newman caused her removal to the Mercy hospital.

The police are looking for the woman's husband and the butcher, who was her landlord. Criminal prosecution is in sight for both.

FUNERAL OF MRS. ANNE E. JONES

The funeral of Mrs. Anne Elizabeth Jones, wife of J. M. Jones, was held from the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Harry M. Hall, 529 Fillmore street, Gary, this afternoon. Services were conducted at the First Baptist church by Rev. Wilson. Interment was at Gary Oak Hill cemetery. Undertaker Bennett being in charge.

A clipping from the Joliet Herald, where Mrs. Jones formerly resided says: "Mrs. J. M. Jones, for many years a resident of Joliet, died Wednesday morning at 8 o'clock at her home in Gary, at the age of 64 years. Death resulted from pneumonia."

"Mrs. Jones was well known in Ridgewood and was a prominent member of the Ridgewood Baptist church. Her Joliet residence was at 321 Sterling avenue. She moved to Gary three years ago."

"Besides her husband she is survived by two sons, William M. and Harry; four daughters, Mrs. Harry Hall, Mabel, Nell and Florence, all of Gary."
